GROUND FLOOR

The ground floor playfully mimics the charm of a classic French brasserie, featuring brown leather banquettes, wooden and stone tables, and a grand copper bar. Its versatile design sets the perfect stage for an authentic Parisian experience and with a striking marble oyster bar at its centre, the ground floor is popular for seated dining and standing events alike.
